NARRATIVE:

Cantu, a documented member of the Paragon 13 street gang, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include burglary, robbery w/use of weapon, possess/manufacture dangerous weapons, petty theft w/prior, extortion, disorderly conduct, violations of parole by a felon, possession of controlled substances, trespassing and failure to appear. Cantu has served multiple state prison terms the longest a four (4) year term for possess/manufacture dangerous weapons. Cantu was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 1st, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Cantu qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for extortion meets the guidelines of PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as a gang member and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
